Marriage Enrichment Retreat

February 27-March 1 '09

“For the state of wedlock does not estrange us from God, but rather ties us more closely to Him, for it brings forth a greater impetus to turn to Him.”

St. Gregory the Theologian

Invited to a Sacrificial Love

“As Christ’s love for humanity was an out-pouring of love even unto death, so too married couples, husbands and wives, are invited to offer their love for each other sacrificially. Marriage viewed from this perspective is more than the union of husband and wife for companionship and personal fulfillment. Rather, it is the union of two individuals who are united by a love that is sacrificial in character and built upon the virtues of humility, compromise, forgiveness, and commitment. It is these marriages that are fertile soil producing not only long lasting unions but also families that will serve as living antidotes to counter our modern family crisis.”

-Archbishop DEMETRIOS
